

How To Finally Feel Home

Your Home Decorating Style

Created by Melinda McCoy

Hello to you!

My guess is that you either have a general idea of your decorating style or are completely overwhelmed with what I refer to as the "Pinterest Blackhole".

In either case, what you first need to understand is how you want your home to feel. It is the first step on your self guided journey of becoming your home's own interior decorator.

SO, HOW DO I DO THIS MELINDA?

I created the quiz below to help you discover the feeling that best relates to you and how you want your home to feel. It will provide you with the objectivity and clarity that you need to finally start feeling home.

Enjoy!
Melinda

Step #1

What decorating style do you connect with the most. Think about your favorite bloggers, people that you may follow on social media, and images that you tend to pin on Pinterest.

Now look for that style, or a similar version, in the descriptions I have provided below. I have translated these descriptions into the 4 main feelings that people generally want to create in their homes.

Now, let's get started!

Step #2

Timeless: simple, classic, elegant, romantic

Welcoming: industrial, cozy, farmhouse, relaxed

Fun: creative, energetic, sweet, gentle

Distinctive: grounded, minimal, luxurious, opulent

What's Next?

How did you do? Did you get a “gut feel” about the feeling that most resonates with you? Wonderful! You now have a focus and can start your own journey to making the right decorating decisions for you and your home.

If you are interested in learning more about this authentic approach to home decorating you can listen to my podcast interview with Little Yellow Couch HERE. I discuss how your personality and the feeling you want to create in your home is what should determine the decorating elements that you choose for it. I also share how my own personality (and family of 5) has paved the way for the decorating decisions that I have made for my own home.

It is so wonderful to have you here!
